Joe and Carolyn

Today we lit a candle praying that God's love will continue to bring healing during this most difficult time and days to Ahead.

The service for your daughter was lovely. Hearing and learning about her love for God and His people was an honorable tribute of a fully lived Life at such a young age.

“ *Mr. and Mrs. Clark,
Words cannot express my sincere condolences with the loss of Sheandra. I had the absolute pleasure of working with Sheandra at Delta for five years and I am so blessed that God placed her in my life. She had such a dynamic personality, quick wit and was truly a breath of fresh air. Her sweet spirit, energy and zest for life was so refreshing and she could just make your day. “ Mr. and Mrs. Clark - I first had the pleasure of knowing Sheandra when I was a young lawyer at Friedman Kaplan in NYC, and watched her progress from law school to associate to in house. But more importantly, I saw the deep friendships she developed, her amazing smile and laugh, and her big love for the world. You raised an amazing human. Thank you for sharing her with us. The Georgia Justice Project's decision to name a volunteer award in her honor is something she would have loved, but probably would have said with her characteristic humility that it wasn't deserved. It was. Sending you so much love. -Mishell Kneeland

“ May God continue to be with Joe and Carolyn as they grieve the loss of their daughter. The blessing is knowing that she is with Jesus and will know no more sorrow or pain. May the Lord provide comfort and peace through His Holy Spirit and that her life be a testimony to others on the need to know Jesus during this short sojourn that we have on earth.

“ David Cartee connected me with Sheandra and she hired me to design the interior of her home. I often as I could, I asked her to tell me stories about her latest travels. There were clues to all of the fascinating destinations she had visited. I just needed her to give me all the insider details! I was extremely sadden to hear of her illness and even sick when I heard of her passing. I'm fortunate to have served her and pray that the living environment I created for her nurtured her brilliant mind, body, and spirit. Rest well Sheandra. Until we meet again.

“ Mr. & Mrs.Clark.

I am deeply sorry for your loss on such a beautiful person. I was Sheandra Clark's cleaner off & on for 8 years. We always were laughing so much to the point we would be crying and sharing travel experiences. She was such a awesome person she followed me from merry maids so I could be her personal cleaner. She was always there for me and fun to be around. I love y'all so much and please don't hesitate to reach out.
