

Sheila Annette Bass

April 13, 1963 - October 2, 2021

Sheila Annette Bass (née Trice), also known as Sheay, was born April 13, 1963, to the late Rebecca Trice (née Tyler) and late Otis Trice Sr. She is survived by her husband Matthew Bass. Although she did not have any biological children of her own, she had plenty of cats, Gizmo, Rusty and Dusty to name a few. She is predeceased by her brothers Hobert Tyler, Charles Tyler and Maurice Trice and sister Betty Ann Trice. Sheila attended Hempstead Public School systems and met the love of her life, Matthew, at Hempstead High School where she graduated in 1981. She later went on to attend Norfolk State University in Norfolk, Virginia, which she couldn't finish due to her battle with Diabetes. She was employed by Meyers, Suozzi, English & Klein Law Firm as a Legal Secretary. She was a member of New Jerusalem UPCOG, where she served as a missionary who always had an uplifting Sunday reading.

Sheila was loved by all who encountered her. She was so full of life and ready to celebrate with anyone for their accomplishments no matter how big or small. She loved to travel, bake, shop and eat ice cream with baileys. She was the mastermind of that massive Christmas tree on 90 Maple that had a gift under it for every kid in the family along with the snoring Santa, her many knitted blankets for all the new babies, and all the family holiday parties. She and Matthew were famous for hosting the Annual Family BBQ at their Uniondale home. The BBQ that everyone looked forward to because of her endless tables of desserts that she would prepare 2-3 days in advance.

Sheila leaves to cherish all of the wonderful memories her husband: Matthew Bass, Stepson: Brandon Bass, Step-grand: Kaliya, 10 siblings: Maggie Lewis (Henry) of Hempstead, NY, Emma Ferguson, Dorothy Ferguson, Mary Ferguson, Roza Seay and Brenda Patterson of Lenoir, NC, Barney Trice (Ruth) of Amityville, NY, Otis Trice Jr. (Toi) of Charlotte, NC, Michael Trice (Antoinette) and Carl Trice of Hempstead, NY, her godchild: Jessica Vaughn, a host of nieces and nephews, many friends and the Louise to her Thelma: Kim Vaughn.
