Living in a small town of Americus, Wayne was the first “international” person I had ever met. I was intrigued by him. His ability to quickly adapt to small-town living impressive. My memories of Wayne are all of an energetic & fun guy with a strange way of talking!

Thankful that Facebook came along later in life so that I could stay in contact with him. It was always enjoyable to read his heartfelt postings. He dearly loved his high school sweetheart/wife. Donna; was extremely proud of the accomplishments of his children; and reminisced often about coming to America. I Loved reading his perspective on his experiences and life. He will be greatly missed in so many ways. Thanks for being my friend. I am thankful I got to learn from you. ❤️

“ Wayne, you were indeed one of a kind. The beautiful inspirational stories you shared, the pictures of family, your horses and that beautiful property always made me feel good about being alive and counting my own blessings. You were an inspiration to me she and my fitness goals. I love you Sheldon Wayne Swilley and will miss your Facebook communications terribly. Deepest condolences to your beautiful wife Donna and your children.
