“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that God works in mysterious ways or that God needed another angel, does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ My condolences to the family of Ms. Sanford during this difficult time. May you be comforted by your loving memories, family, and close friends. Know that our Heavenly Father Jehovah (Psalms 83:18) is near to us in our time of need. Gods word the Bible assures us a time when sickness and death will be done away with, (Revelations 21:1-4 Isaiah 33:24) and a time when will reunite with our loved ones again (Acts 24:15 , John 5:28,29) Draw close to God in prayer. Philipians 4:7 tells us that God will grant us the mental peace we need by means of Jesus Christ. May this peace be with you now, and the days ahead. “ I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death. God's Word assures us: Your dead ones will live....They will rise up. (Isaiah 26:19) Jesus confirmed his role in this promise when he said: I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life. (John 11:25). Remember...God is faithful and always keeps his promises!
