Shelly....my "real live baby doll." Shelly was not only my niece but she was also my friend. We laughed together, we cried together, we confided in each other and much more. To watch Shelly go from the beautiful baby to the beautiful woman, the amazing mom astounding! The love and dedication she had for her son Clinton was unbelievable! That young man was absolutely Shelly's world! Her son was literally her sun, her moon and the stars for her. Even when she didn't feel well....when it came to Clinton she would struggle through....for her Boo. There's so much more I could say about my niece....but I'll instead close by saying even though her 51 years seems too short....I thank God for allowing us to have her for those 51 years....and I thank God for blessing our family with this unbelievable young lady, it has without a doubt been a honor and a privilege to be Shelly Haynes aunt...."My niece Shelly Haynes was....still is....and will always be my HERO." Rest In Paradise beautiful....you certainly will never ever be forgotten.
