“ Sherae, the world has lost but heaven has won. I can't believe you are gone but I know that you are and were an angel in disguise. You had a heart for service and people. I was blessed by your light. I will live out loud because of you, I will remember all the cheers you had for me and I for you. What a blessing that we got to be friends on the journey. I will love you and cherish every instance and moment we had to collaborate, support, and just be. Fly high my friend until....

“Missing someone is sadness wrapped in the blessing of having known them.” I will miss Sherae. She was a special person because she was kind, beautiful, smart, funny, and loving. Sherae and I met in a stand-up comedy class back in 2008. We encouraged and supported each other and other comedians. We volunteered together at with production companies and casting directors. Went to class at Studio C. Showing up for shows and performing. And we laughed!! Some of the funniest times I had with her is when she'd announce that she bored with a specific joke in a little group. But then she'd kind of seem annoyed with us or the audience because we still found the jokes funny. How could she retire a joke that still gets laughs!! Well, Sherae wasn't having it. I still remember her jokes and laugh. She had a wonderful way of making jokes about her disability and other challenges.

I also remember what inspired her to keep pushing and trying and living. She loved her family. She also loved talking about nutrition and food. She cared so much about her health and the healthy eating of people, especially poor and black people. She was inspirational. I will miss my friend. Sending lots of virtual hugs to the Adams Family.
