

Sheral LaRose Kemp-Mizell

August 14, 1955 - May 5, 2024

Sheral was born on August 14, 1955, in Lone Oak, Georgia to the proud parents of Annie Joyce and Hulit (deceased) Hardaway. She is the granddaughter of Rosa (deceased) and Cottrell Ellis (deceased), and Lottie Hardaway (deceased). She has a sister, Faye Hardaway, brother Ronald Hardaway (Brenda) , and a extended brother and sister Jeffrey (Casandra) Johnson and Betty Banks. She has a son who she loves dearly, Rodrick Kemp, and very special loved Godson, Trae'vis Griggs who she raised. Her extended family sons are Henry Long and Deshaun Mizell. Sheral graduated from Gordon High in Dekalb County, Georgia. She also attended Dekalb College. Her professional work history includes working with handicapped children at a Cerebral Palsy center/school; Lionel transportation and; the City of Atlanta Public Schools (APS) where she retired as a Transportation Supervisor for school bus drivers.

Sheral was married to Sylvester Kemp (deceased) and later married Henry Mizell (deceased).

Sheral was naturally very smart and had a special talent for caring for others in need. Her favorite color was blue, and she collected owls. Owls are known for their wisdom and intelligence.

Sheral has a loving grandson, JaRodd Kemp who helped her often with things that she needed. She also has other lovely grandchildren, Syria Kemp, DeGene Dean and Sylvia Jamison.

As she made her transition into heaven, Sunday, May 5, 2024, Sheral leaves behind also a niece (Breyona (Zaine) Sharpnack), nephews (YaDonnis (Rosaida) and Jairius (Tawanda) Hardaway), a special cousin (Joy Martin), many other dear family and friends.

Sheral will be greatly missed, but never forgotten. We will forever hold her in a dear place in our heart, and anytime we see an owl (whether on a tee shirt, coffee cup, etc.) we will remember how blessed we are to have been a part of Sheral's life experience here on earth.

Peace
