“ My deepest sympathy and prayers go out to the family of Shermaine Lee. I was fortunate to be a part of her care team at CTCA. She was always smiling and was indeed a fighter until the end.

“ I am deeply saddened to hear of the passing of Mrs. Shermaine Lee. She was absolutely the best teacher I ever had and I was so fortunate to have her. Some of my fondest memories from school include the times I spent in her class. Her passion to teach was matched only by her compassion for her students. I will truly miss her! the best teacher in world ... Rip Mrs. Lee and deepest sympathy to the family.

“ I offer heartfelt condolences and Scriptural encouragement to the family and friends of Mrs. Lee. When a loved one falls asleep in death, we can rely on God's secure provision to resurrect them... "God sent his only- begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." (1John 4:9). Jesus confirmed his role in the resurrection provision when he said... "I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." (John 11:25). Keep in mind... God cares for you and "He is a refuge and strength, a help that is readily found in times of distress." (Psalm 46:1).

“ To Shermaine's husband and sons,

I am so sorry to hear of your loss. I was the chair of Shermaine's dissertation committee and loved working with her, seeing her enthusiasm for earning her doctorate, hearing of her speak of her love of her family, and of her deep religious beliefs. I will miss her, as will all others in her LMU family. My prayers are with you.

“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the friends and the family of Mrs. Shermaine Nicole Lee. The loss of a love one brings us the anguish of grief, but we can find comfort and hope in God's word, the bible. The promise of a resurrection at Acts 24:15, John 11:25 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. In your time of sorrow you can draw closer to God in prayer. ~James 4:8.

“ I am truly sorry to hear of the loss of your loved one. Life in this world can be so short and then our loved ones are taken from us. At times like this, words can only comfort us so much, so please rely on God's promises found in his word the Bible to carry you through these difficult times. (John 5:28, 29; Rev. 21:4) May the love of family and friends give you the comfort and strength to continue on. For more comfort and help to deal with the days ahead, please visit www.jw.org.
