“ I met Sherri in 1998, we worked together at the State of Georgia. We were work buddies and Centennial Park buddies for Winddown Wednesdays. Our friendship grew over the years. She introduced me to the fashion industry in Atlanta, where we collaborated on several ventures. She introduced me to the Caribbean night life in Atlanta as well as everything social. Sherri was a social being, who was well liked. We grew apart over the years, however we were always only a phone call away. When her mom passed we reconnected again, her step dad passed and she still held strong. During her time on this earth she LIVED! a few years ago she said I am going to enjoy this time that I have to the fullest and when I feel good I dress up and show out. Sherri was a force to be reckoned with, She was beautiful and smart and full of life. It is always sad to lose someone, however I feel like a light has been dimmed. Sheri you are now among the ancestors, take your rightful place. Rest Well lady. May God comfort the family and loved ones during this sad time.

“ Sherry you had such a amazing spirit it was bright and loving. I feel extremely blessed to have had you as a God-sister. Some of my best times in my life include you Mama Jackie, and Ma'Ree. You'll be forever in my heart Sis. Sisterhood is tried and true, remember me and I'll remember you.

“ We send our sincere condolences to the family of Ms. Sherry Mack. We had the opportunity to meet Sherry at one Ricky Hill's (Cousin) birthday bash years ago. Sherry lit up the entire room with her smile, her witty personality and of course her beauty and her style. Sherry was loved by so many. May God Bless each of you and may heaven smile upon you during this most difficult time.
Respectfully,
Jerome and Dr. LaShun Millender

“ To my friend Sherri aka My Black Jewel, just know that our TRUE bond meant so much too much. Our weekly check-ins were always good and we made each other laugh. I'm going to miss you so much. I can't even put into words what I want to say right now. Just know that you are loved and thanks for letting me hang out with you, get to know the real you, oh and thanks for the fashion tips! You definitely were a fighter and you refused to give up. That will always be remembered, your strength and courage. Sleep in peace my friend. Love always TuShay aka Your Black Mamba.
