“ To my beautiful friend....I enjoyed the time that we spent at Hillandale together. It was like old times. We laughed, we talked, and we ate. I will miss you so much. I went there looking for you the next and you were gone. I didn't get to come to your funeral because I didn't know that you had made your transition. I called you tonight to say I love you and wish you a good night, but you were already gone. My heart aches but I know you fought hard. You looked so beautiful when I last saw you and I will forever remember that special time that we spent together. I love you and I will miss you. I will enjoy life for you. You were my friend and you brought so much happiness into my life. Thank you for keeping in touch with me all of these years. As I cry, I can't help but be filled with joy because I got a chance to be by your side and to tell you how much you meant to me. I just didn't count on that being my last time seeing you. Once again you may be gone, but you will never leave my heart. May God keep you. Sondra Stinson- Robinson

“ I just attended the HOMEGOING for Sherron today. It was absolutely exquisite. Kenny you sent her home in grand style. She loved the selection by Yolanda Adams I'm sure. That was our song. She looked beautiful and I am proud to say that she was my friend. My life is better from having known her. I will forever remember her phrase, I'm Fine. Even through her toughest hour she would always respond that way. I love her and will miss her. I already do.

“ To Mary, and the rest of my adopted family. We have lost a bright shining light in our lives. Sherron kept her light shining even during her darkest hours, she never gave up her beautiful smile. That's the memory I will hold in my heart forever. God can, and will give us strength because we believe and trust in him. I love you all so very much. Hold on to God and each other.
