Sherry Ann was our cousin and would visit our home in Thomaston, GA. with Aunt Ella Ree when she and Beatrice were teenagers. A very sweet woman with her signature dimples and beautiful smile and no one could make ballerina shoes look so cute. We will continue to pray for you family.

“ My classmate always had that big smile, eventhough we haven't seen each other in over a year, when I heard of her passing, all i could see was that big smile. We believe you are in good hands, but we will miss that glow in your eyes and that big smile. .

To the family of Sherry Ann Davis-Mapp please know that you are in my thoughts as you travel this difficult journey. Sherry was my classmate as well as a fellow Soldier at the 461st PSC. She was very one of the nicest people to know. We will miss you dearly. RIP, until we meet again. Deepest Sympathy Diane Thomas-Osby
