*To the family of Shirley Conell;
My family will forever love each of you. We grieve her passing on to her Heavenly home but we will always cherish her unique voice and the beautiful melodies she professionally shared with us all. I met Shirley in the late 70's at Lilydale Progressive Baptist Church in Chicago she was then and remained a loyal friend to me. I will forever remember each of you in my prayers as you find peace in casting yours cares on Him.*

Much love family,

Mother Bertha Simmons and family

“ Such a wonderful person ! We grew up together. Even though we were not related, Shirley was very much a friend who made you feel like she was a sister or close relative. I have good memories which means she will live on in my mind and heart. Rest on my Sister, will see you again. Marvin C. Shackelford
