“ Shirley was a sweet classmate and dear friend. I shall never forget you fussing at me for not following your simple directions on how to meet you for lunch. We had a great lunch to network for my security business.

“ Shirley, we were friends for so long that I don't even remember where we met; I think it was at Carver, but that's not important. Nevertheless, you were always a joy to be around, and our little group had the best of times. All of us will miss you very much, my sweet friend. Hugs and kisses for you in Heaven!

Shirley and I had lunch together to network, and because we both went to Lanier High school, I was fond of her. I will miss her beautiful smile and passion for our Alabama Crimson Tide. May God grant comfort to ALL her friends and family. 🙏✨🙏
