“ I was a little girl about 4 or 5 when you came into my life. I instantly fell in love with you. Although it had been a few years since we'd seen each other, that same love has always been here. Rest on, you Great Woman of God. Welcome to the Kingdom, here you'll receive your crown.

“ To the Family. When I last saw Shirley, that infectious smile lit up the room as it had many many years before. I will always remember Shirley for her smile and the loving wife and mother she was blessed to be. Blessings and condolences to Frank, Pookie, Colby, and Courtney.

Love,
Meeka and Family.

“ Since the day you came home for hospice I've been trying to figure out the words to say. I'm so hurt right now. I think of all the times we spent together, the words the wisdom, the laughter and joy!!! You meant the world to us.

My mom and dad wouldn't allow us to spend the night out EXCEPT at Shirley and Frank's house. They spoke and thought so highly of you all. I felt the same way. I trusted you with my girls because God said to trust you and He was so right.

I am truly going to miss you. I know you loved the Lord and the Lord lived you. I can truly say Thank you God for taking your pain away. I knew you were tired. I knew you were ready. We talked. We had so many talks. We laughed and cried together and laughed some more. I will always cherish that. I love you so much. My girls are missing you too!! They still want to write you letters and Rylee wants to come read you the bible. Rest easy Angel 🥹🥹🥹🌸🌸 I'm grateful I was able to give you cards and flowers while you were alive.

Love Always,
Felicia, Makenzie, and Rylee
