“ I remember the first time I met Aunt Shirley. I was a little girl age 8 and I remembered thinking she was a Walt Disney princess because she was the prettiest woman I had ever seen. She had two little girls who always seemed to have the prettiest clothes on as if they were about to go to a special event...each and every time I saw them. :) Aunt Shirley was so sweet and kind and giving for as long as I've known her. Her inner strength has always been a force and is what we saw through her recent battle. The last time I saw Aunt Shirley was at my wedding dancing and laughing and that is how I will always remember her beautiful soul.

Please accept my heartfelt condolence for the emptiness the end of her battle has caused. May God give your heart peace and strength and wonderful memories for the days to come.

Love,
Jeanne Mangano

“ I extend my sincere condolences to you. Remember... "God sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." ~1 John 4:9. He empowered Jesus to resurrect dead ones when he was on the earth, giving us a foregleam of what He will do in the future. Jesus assures us: "God's Word is truth." ~John 17:17. S. Whiting
