“ Thank you Ms. Shirley for welcoming my mom (Valarie) and I into your family and your church home, Antioch of Lithonia. This is a hard pill to swallow! I will miss your church hugs, your soul food, and just watching how classy and elegant you were in church. My condolences to Mr. Larry and Risa 🙏

“ We have precious memories of times of fellowship with Shirley and her family. She and Minister Lee welcomed our return to Georgia after a nearly fifty-year absence with a wonderful surprise. They appeared at our door one day ready to help us get settled into our new home. A time of unpacking boxes, hanging curtains and lots of joyful conversation ensued. A few months later in 2003 when the dedication of our new home was held, Shirley was here again. This time preparing the food that would be served. That excellent feast will long be remembered for its quality and quantity.

We fondly recall times spent in her home, partaking of deliciously prepared meals. She always made special sugar-free cakes and pies just for Fran. Not only were the meals tasty, but you could rest assured that they were clean and healthy. Shirley was a Chef Extraordinaire. The crowning characteristic of all of her efforts was that she served out of love. So long, our beloved sister. We will see you again at the Marriage Supper of the Lamb.

Love in Christ,
Thornton (Hamp) & Fran Anderson

“ I met Shirley at North Metro Post Office as we both trained on a Postal App. We immediately clicked and our friendship was formed. She invited me to church service at Antioch Lithonia and I eventually became a member. I will always remember your kind heart, our many laughs, our trips to the mountains and your cakes.

My sincere condolences Larry and Larissa. Thinking of you and wishing you strength and comfort in the days ahead. God Bless You.

Condolences to the family and all who knew and love Shirley. I remember the last time I saw her... We greeted each other, exchanged a Sisterly hug and as always, I told her I loved her, and walked away with a smile... My last look at Shirley was seeing a smile on her face. Much love to the family.

“ I can hear her say, "Come On Gurl...We gonna ride up in the mountains today." I'd say, "Where we going?" She'd say, "Awww we just gon' ride!"

We'd be gone the whole day! Just stopping and shopping all along the way.

Our last trip was to Blue Ridge to ride the train...

Rev. Larry and Larrisa...My heart hurts for you both! I will keep you lifted in prayer as you find a way to carry on. Just know she will be with you always in your thoughts and in your heart.

“ My deepest condolences to Shirley’s family. Shirley was a beautiful person, funny, and an excellent dedicated employee at the Decatur Post Office. She was always smiling and helped so many people throughout the years with passports, claims and other services. I remember attending her retirement party and so happy that was able to enjoy being retired. I have no doubt that God welcomed her into heaven with open arms. God bless you Shirley and may God give peace comfort to your family.
