“ I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death and I offer sincere condolences to you all. Please keep in mind: "God sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." ~1John 4:9. Jesus confirmed his role in raising dead ones to life when he said: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." ~John 11:25. God is faithful and always fulfills his promises! ~Revelation 21:3-5, Joshua 23:14.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ Harold and Children,
We have had our prayers for you and Shirley this past year, and will continue as you go through the bereavement process. From what I could see, Shirley was a good mother, wife and friend.
God Bless all of you during this trying time.

“ Harold Walker and Family

I extend my heartfelt sympathy on the loss of Shirley.

My fondest memories of her have always been her ever-smiling face and her jovial laughter during our youth. It is true that Shirley lived a life of a fragrant flower. .

Difficult though it may be, I know for sure she would want us all to be the same, spreading joy and peace in the lives of those around us.

My prayers and thoughts are with you in this grief-stricken hour. We pray that God grants her eternal rest in heaven and that her soul rests in peace.

With love and heartfelt sympathies,

“ My sincere condolences to the family of Ms. Walker. There are a few things in life that hurts us more than the death of a loved one. But it is at these times that we turn to "the Father of tender mercies, and the God of all comfort."-2 Cor 1:3,4. Please be assured of his love for you! Job 14:14,15 says "he yearns to raise the dead." For more info about "Hope for Our Dead Loved Ones", please visit jw.org. Thanks.

“ Dear Harold and Children,
Bereavement is so personal that few of us, unless we have experienced it ourselves, can comprehend its grief. Shirley was loved by all who knew her. Her pleasant vitality was a continuous inspiration. So at this time I send my deepest sympathy and say my thoughts have been with each of you since I heard of Shirley's death.

With love
