“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that God works in mysterious ways or that God needed another angel, does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ My sincere condolences to the family of Ms. Walker. There are a few things in life that hurts us more than the death of a loved one. But it is at these times that we turn to the Father of tender mercies, and the God of all comfort.-2 Cor 1:3,4. Please be assured of his love for you! Job 14:14,15 says he yearns to raise the dead. “ Harold and Children, We have had our prayers for you and Shirley this past year, and will continue as you go through the bereavement process. From what I could see, Shirley was a good mother, wife and friend. God Bless all of you during this trying time. Lester and Joan Carlisle

“ Dear Harold and Children, Bereavement is so personal that few of us, unless we have experienced it ourselves, can comprehend its grief. Shirley was loved by all who knew her. Her pleasant vitality was a continuous inspiration. So at this time I send my deepest sympathy and say my thoughts have been with each of you since I heard of Shirley's death. With love Frankie Williams Virginia Beach, Va
