“ Dear Tuitt Family: Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. May the love and support of family and friends comfort you greatly during this difficult time. The Bible also gives us comfort and hope to see our loved ones again right here on earth by means of the resurrection. “There will be a resurrection of the righteous and the unrighteous “ May you have peace as you think about this beautiful hope for the future.

“ I have had the pleasure of working with Shirwana for the past 9 years. In that time our relationship for coworker to friend to family. We talked about everything and offered advice, support and sometimes just a listening ear. Every day started with a call to discuss workday plans but soon turned to whatever was happening in the world or our lives. I will truly miss her smile, her wit, attention to detail and most of all her friendship. I thank you Glenn for inviting me into your family. I could not imagine my life without the time spent with you and Shirwana. While I will miss thoe things stated earlier, I will never ever forget Shirwana. Rest in peace my friend. Love you!!!

“ My deepest sympathies to Glenn, Shianne and the family of Shirwana Tuitt-McNeily. Our hearts are heavy with sorrow. Shirwana was truly an angel working for her wings. When we relocated to Atlanta from St. Louis with Delta Airlines, Shirwana and Glenn embraced my wife and me as if we were family. Shirwana's friendship, acts of kindness, words of wisdom, smile and laughter will be missed but never forgotten. We will be forever grateful to have been in her company and witnessed countless acts of this same love shared with others. May God give the family strength and peace. Sincerely, Mark Rush and family.

“ Shirwana was a co-worker of mine at Delta and a very good person. We all really had a lot of good fun while we all work together at Delta. She also supported my Artistic Endeavors by coming out to my art showing when I return back into the art scene. I really appreciate it her friendship, her laughter, and her support. You will be missed and God bless the family.

“ I only had the pleasure of speaking with you over the phone but you exuded the beauty and pose that I see in your picture. In the little time I had with you I am thankful and feel blessed that God allowed me to include you in a Chapter of my book of life. A beautiful flower that God has chosen for his Kingdom. Gone to soon but thankful to have met an Angel. (Toni Williams) Prayers of Comfort for the Tuitt Family

“ My heart is heavy with sorrow. My eyes still burn with tears. I still cannot wrap my mind around the fact that you are no longer with us. I pray for your Husband, Shiane, your Mother and EVERYBODY whose life will be forever changed because someone unique as you has been called home. I will miss the phone calls we used to have to discuss work issues and then ended up talking about everything under the "Sun; how you made me laugh until my face and stomach hurt. How you listened with compassion and offered advise when I did share what a rough day I was having! how you were going through health challenges of your own and you never complained, you accepted your life and would tell me just how thankful and Blessed you were for what you had. I knew you had a loving husband and how much you loved your daughter. I always remember you SMILING. I remember you stepping up volunteer to do the things on our team that no one else wanted to do!!! I MISS YOU!!.... GOD bless your beautiful soul....I know you are with JESUS!!! where else would someone like you be other than with HIM. Rest in Peace, dear, sweet Shirwana!

Wow, I just can't imagine! I truly can say I hate death. I know God is good and I'm at peace knowing this is not God's purpose and I long for the day of Christ Jesus awakening and all his children will be reunited with their love ones in his Kingdom where sickness, suffering and pain will never occur again. Shirwana out of all the people I have met at Kaiser I can honestly say you were one of the nicest and kind hearted person I have met and I will always remember your kindness. I know I told you over and over Thanks for the wonderful Dining room table you gave me for my house warming gift last year. I just want you to know it is looking like you decorated it so that means it's beautiful. I will miss those times you lite up the office when you came in with your smile and laughter and of course when you treated me to breakfast for going down and getting yours lol. I know this is a hard time for your husband and little girl, but I pray that the power of God and Christ will carry them through this difficult time of loss and that his spirit will comfort and assure them of his promise that you are safe and that he will unite you again. I pray their faith will keep them fortified and never lose hope but comfort them in knowing we shall see you again. Till then may the love of God and Christ be with them and protect them . Sincerely Terriel
