“ I admired Coach Solomon from the first moment we met in the mid 80's. I was fortunate to coach his daughter on a basketball team that went undefeated. I remember Coach Solomon's smile and mild demeanor coupled with a competitive spirit. He loved his wife and family and will surely be missed.

“ Our entire relationship with Solomon was nothing less than outstanding. Solomon was a dependable friend who always stood by his word. He was always jubilant and glad to serve. He was a loyal and exceptional employee of the DeKalb County School System. He coached our son in basketball as well as and thousands of other children. What a giant of a man. His life was well lived. Solomon will be sorely missed. We will always remember him. Now may he rest in peace.

Coach Solomon James was not only my basketball coach, but someone who inspired me to always look for the positives in life. What he taught me are life skills and principles that have made me the person I am today. He taught me so much on and off the court and I am forever grateful for that. I won't ever forget his words of wisdom and smile as I 'm sure he's smiling down on us all. May he rest in peace. God bless him and his family in this difficult time.
