“ My fondest memory of my Sis Sonia that keeps me laughing is when we migrated here, the USA. I will just say that about that. Her best attribute to me is her caring spirit as she has shown me especially when I needed it the most. I will miss her, but I know she is at peace! 🌻 🌸 🌺

“ On behalf of the entire Williams Family I would like to extend our deepest condolences. Sis Sonia was truly a lover of God and people. Her life was built on prayer and devotion to Christ. Her faith in adversity is a pillar to all that knew her. I thank God for the precious moments that we were able to share. I'm so glad you were able to squeeze my hand and listen to Holy Lamb of God together... You are loved and missed because you made a loving impact in so many lives. You made it over... Tell Da Lord Tank Ya!!

“ A TRUE woman of God indeed. You’ve impacted many with the love you had for the Lord, you’ve shown so many the way. Your transition left us with aching and heavy hearts, this still doesn’t seem real. I thank God for you yesterday, today and all the days ahead, you’ve help me become the woman I am today, ITS BECAUSE OF YOU! I’m going to miss our phone conversations and our ministry gatherings, you were always there to support me and I didn’t take that for granted. I will always remember “Don’t listen to them Beautiful, follow God”. Thanks Mum for EVERYTHING 😭😭😭

“ Sonia was a true evangelist!! She was a light to so many and a bridge for so many. She connected so many dots and helped build so many relationships!! I had the pleasure of serving with her in ministry and it did not stop there. We became friends and stayed connected!! She loved my family and I unconditionally! She poured into our ministry and always believed in us!! She prayed with us and for us!! A true intercessor! Sonia was so much to so many! She is already missed but forever in our hearts and her legacy lives on ❤️

“ Her name to is Mama Sonia, after so much church hurt, holding anger and disappointments she showed me the true meaning of the love of Christ. Also her unwavering stand on telling me how to be a lady I will always hold. When my Mom passed you would talk to me, now I have nobody as a Mom to talk to. I love you and another piece of my heart is gone.

When I landed in the United States, her mother and adopted father (the Banton's) took me in as a son and "Aunty Sonia became my sister as they all wrapped their arms around me. Not just figuratively but in words deeds and actions. Her husband led me to my first job working with him. And as she shared her love, her charity. In her final years she still reached out to me with our unselfish determination to give unto the less fortunate. She shared with my group. May her memories continue to live within all whose lives she touched. My deepest condolences to the entire family in this time of bereavement will keep you all in my thoughts and prayers.

“ My darling Sonia you were the best friend one could ever have. You were more a sister than friend. Now, I am walking the rest of the path of our friendship alone and it is truly heartbreaking. A piece of my heart is now a star in the sky. The memories we made will never be forgotten. I am a better person for having such a wonderful friend. They say friends are the family we choose. Being chosen as your friend was the greatest moment of my life. Your laugh still echoes in the quiet moments. God bless my sister and friend

“ A Tribute to the Best Godmother, Aunty Sonia

We mourn a loss that feels immense, yet also to celebrate a life, the life of my beloved godmother, Aunty Sonia. She was, quite simply, the strongest person I have ever known.

Aunty Sonia did not merely face adversity; she stared it down, time and time again. Her journey was marked by multiple battles against cancer, and in each instance, she did more than just survive she conquered. She was a true warrior, and every new day after those fights was a testament to her incredible, indomitable spirit.

Her strength was anchored by a deep and unwavering faith. Aunty Sonia was a devout woman of God, and her relationship with Him was the fuel that powered her remarkable resilience. She walked through life with grace, her actions guided by love, her words offering comfort, and her spirit radiating a quiet, profound peace that could steady anyone in a storm. She showed us all what it means to truly put your trust in a higher power.

She also knew how to make life fun and full of joy. I'll always cherish the memories of summer holidays in New York. She was the heart of the family, ensuring that my god brothers, god sister, and I had endless days of laughter and unforgettable adventures. Those moments, filled with family and love, were a gift she gave us all and one I will never forget.

For me, she was more than just a godmother; she was a second mother and a rock. She had a way of making you feel seen, loved, and capable of anything. Even in her final challenge, she maintained a dignity and faith that was inspiring beyond words. While the earthly fight has ended, her victory is now complete, and she is at peace in the presence of the Lord she served so faithfully.

Aunty Sonia, your life was a beautiful, powerful sermon. You taught us the true meaning of strength, not just physical, but spiritual. We will miss your laughter, your wisdom, and the warmth of your embrace.

Rest in peace, my dear Godmother. Thank you for being my Aunty Sonia, my Momma. Your legacy of faith and fortitude will live on in all of us who were blessed to know and love you.

Sonia was more than a friend and co-worker — she was a light in every place she entered. She loved God deeply, and that love showed in the way she treated people: with patience, kindness, and a heart always ready to serve. She supported her community with dedication, and she lifted her friends with unwavering encouragement.

Those who knew her were blessed by her generosity, her warm smile, and the way she made everyone feel seen and valued. Her legacy lives on in the love she shared and the lives she touched.
