

Sonya Lenita Crawford

July 17, 1966 - February 17, 2025

Sonya Crawford, age 58, gained her wings on February 17, 2025. She battled a rare form of cancer for 6 months however through it all she brought joy and laughter to us all.

Sonya is survived by her four children, Roderick Chaney, Brittney Tobler (spouse Jordan Tobler), Major Chaney, and Makayla Reed. She was a proud grandmother to seven grandchildren.

Sonya's parents, Clarence and Ollie Mae Banks, raised her with love and taught her the value of family and sticking together. She attended Columbia High School where she made lifelong friends and cherished memories.

One of Sonya's greatest joys in life was traveling. Whether it was a road trip with her family or an adventure abroad, she always had a smile on her face and a twinkle in her eye.

Sonya battled cancer with grace and courage, never losing her contagious spirit or sense of humor. She will be deeply missed by all who knew her.

Rest in peace, Sonya. Your light will continue to shine brightly in our hearts forever.

“ I remember Sonya's smile when she talked about her travels, working together on Brittney's bridal shower and her sweet potato pie. But most of all I remember when she told me she loved my son, her son-in-law. I am so glad that I got to meet her and talk to her. To me, she was a pretty woman with a zest for life. I am thankful that she was blessed with a daughter who is a blessing to my son. She will be missed.

“ Momma Sonya.....you will always hold a special place in my heart. You're the glue that keeps everyone together. It made me so happy once I truly started to feel like apart of the family. I remember trying soooo hard to impress you on our first family outing at the bowling alley lol, good times. You gave me amazing heartfelt gifts every year that I will always keep and cherish. When I would see you, you would give me the type of hug that let me know I wasn't just a son in law but more like another son to you. A part of me will never be the same because you are gone now but I'm so glad to have met you and to have been a part of your life. I know I have another angel guiding me and watching over me. I will have your daughters back for life, you'll never have to worry about that. Tae Makayla and Rod will always have an extra brother in me and I will be there anytime they need me. We looooveeee you and miss you so much! Until we meet again.

“ I still can't believe you have left this side. Your transition definitely hits different for me. My heart is truly broken. We grew up together more like sisters than Aunt and Niece. I have a lifetime of memories and conversations to reflect on when the tears start rolling down my face. I am grateful we had one last visit with you. We had hoped for a different outcome but God had other plans. Rest in peace until we meet again 💕💕

“ I still cannot believe that you're gone. The days are so empty without our talks. The nights are so dark without your presence. I am genuinely grateful that I had the pleasure of being your son. I am grateful that you are who you are. Your flaws are exactly what make you perfect in my eyes and I will never go a day without missing your calming voice. I am so sorry I could not nurture you back to health. I am so sorry for all the pain you had to endure in this life. This world truly did not deserve such a beautiful forgiving soul. I hope you are seeing everything we do to honor you moving forward. I love you mom and I will always love you ❤️

“ The day you left changed my life forever. I'll never be the same. You took a part of me when you left but I find comfort in knowing you're no longer in pain and you fought hard to live and you won! You will forever be my queen, my hero, my Angel and the best mother I could have ever asked for. I'll think about you every single day of my life. I love you mommy and I can't wait to see and hug you again.

“ RIP my Columbia High School Eaglemate! I remember how smart and quick you were in math and you were a great marching band student. You could remember and understand how to maneuver on the field. You always had a plan to get things done. I pray that your family find comfort in knowing that you were an amazing woman and always excelled as a leader. Your beautiful smile and kindness to me will always be remembered.
