“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the friends and the family of Ms. Sophia Green. The loss of a love one brings us the anguish of grief. We can find comfort in God's word, the bible. The promise of a resurrection at Acts 24:15, John 11:25 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. In your time of sorrow you can draw closer to God in prayer. ~James 4:8.

“ The Green Family, Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Sophia will be missed by all that knew and loved her. The scriptures give us a beautiful hope for our lost loved ones. I pray you will find the comfort it gives. 2 Corinthians 1:3,4. JOHN 5:28,29

“ I offer sincere condolences and Scriptural encouragement to you all. May your faith in God's loving resurrection provision (1John 4:9) sustain you as you look ahead to the time when "all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." (John 5:28,29).

Jesus confirmed his role in raising up ones who fall asleep in death when he said: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one exercising faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." (John 11:25). He also encourages us: "Do not let your hearts be troubled. Exercise faith in God, exercise faith also me. (John 14:1)

“ You and your family members have my deepest sympathy for your loss. Please know that our heavenly father, Jehovah brings comfort to all who have fallen asleep in death with the hope of the resurrection. And how we look forward to the day when the last enemy, death, “is to be brought to nothing”! (1 Corinthians 15:26) Confidence in Jehovah’s resurrection promise brings us comfort and a sure hope for the future.
