“ From your cousin Faye. To the family of cousin Kevin, first I want to say you all are very much loved. During this time, your heart ache because part of you is not here and it feels like you are being torn apart. As you know, God is with you and He will take the pain away and draw you closer to Him. He said he will never leave you nor forsake you.

I want to share with you the last time I talked with Kevin. I was at work, during my lunch Kevin told me he thought he would have gone on to be with the Lord last year, but he made it to this year and that he may not live through this year, he said he was alright. I told him I was going to come visit him and cook a good meal for him; he said oh great "I can eat anything ". I said really, you can eat like that, he said "I can eat anything", lol. I said that's great.

I enjoyed talking to Kevin. He always spoke highly of himself which I thought was great. Kevin was a man of loyalty. He made sure you knew he love you. It was always good to see him and get a great hug. Kevin will be greatly missed. Love cousin Faye

“ One of my fondest memories of Kevin is that he "loved" White Castle Hamburgers sooo much! He would call me to send him burgers from Louisville, KY. I would get his order, wrap them in foil, freeze them and package them for shipment through the postal service. I wish I could describe the joy in Kevin's voice when he called to let me know he got his "White Castles!!" With loving, caring thoughts and prayers...may God comfort you all during this time of sadness. Love Shelly

“ The last time I saw Kevin was about two years ago. He came over to visit with me and Faye. We had so much fun eating and laughing and he told a lot of jokes and funny stories. Gwen came by later. He was happy to see her. Then he put on his pj's and went outside for a minute. It was just so pleasant to have him here with us with his pj's eating and laughing and taking pictures. Kevin was such a loving cousin. He will forever be in my heart. Love you Cousin Kevin. Cousin Jackie
