“ My sincere condolences to the Family of Spencer Cooper. I may not have known Mr.Cooper personally, but looking at his pictures and the words others wrote about him I sense the tremendous loss everyone is feeling. At times like this we need to be comforted and strengthened. I have found such encouragement from God's word the bible. When I read verses such as Acts 24:15, Revelation 21:3,4 and Isaiah 33:24 where our Heavenly Father gives us such wonderful reassurances concerning our dead loved ones future prospects. He promises a time when all the woes that plague mankind will be done away with. May his word and the words of love and support from your family and friends sustain and encourage you.

“ The last time I saw Spencer, since we had not seen each other in five years, he said to me You look just like my Aunt, which was my mother,and I said to him You look just like my uncle, which was his father. We were sister and brother's children first cousins. I am in deep pain to know that I am in Los Angeles and when I come home, I can't call him or go by to see him. He will be deeply missed with three of his first cousins in California, Shirley, Helen, and Ronnie. We love you Spencer, may God welcome you Home.

“ I would like to express my deepest sympathy to the Cooper family. I was devastated when I learned of his demise. I saw Spencer at Golden Corral in Austell recently along with one of his classmates from Morris Brown. We hugged, laughed, and talked for about 25 minutes. We also talked about our last High School Reunion and how much we enjoyed it. I will truly miss his smiling face. I will keep you in my prayers. Sincerely, Marilyn Jennings Binion.

“ To the Family: I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death and I encourage you all to look ahead to the time when death will be no more and all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out. (Revelation 21:3-5, John 5:28,29). God made the resurrection provision at great cost to himself when He sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him. ~1 John 4:9. God is faithful and always keeps his promises!
