*Time slips away like sand in our hand,
Moments that once were now hard to understand,
The past seems so close yet so far,
Leaving us with memories, like a fading star.*

*Years that once felt like an eternity,
Now fleeting moments of our reality,
We blink and life has passed us by,
Leaving us to wonder where did time fly?*

*So cherish every moment that you hold,
For time is precious, more valuable than gold,
Embrace every day and make it last,
Before it becomes a memory from the past.*

I am deeply sorry for the loss. My thoughts and prayers are with the Baker family during this heartbreaking time.
