Stanley Johnson was a kind soul. One of the last conversations I had with Stanley was about who would win the annual Source ugly sweater contest this past Christmas...I told him next year I would beat him...we laughed. What a wonderful person to be around. Stanley you will be missed...To his family, you are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Stanley was a very kind man. Always so positive. His smile and his infamous saying of agreement "No Doubt" was a charmer. Working with him at Source Support was always a joy. He would always try to help everyone. God called a another solider home. Rest in peace in the arms of our heavenly Father Bro. Your kind spirit was appreciated and will be truly missed...no doubt!

“ My condolences to the family. I grew up in Chester, PA, Stanley & I worked together at Levitz Furniture in Claymont, De, I graduated with his brother Timothy. I moved to Georgia and later learned Stanley had did so also. Him & his wife came to my 40th birthday party. Even though we did not see or talk often but when we did it was like no time had been between us. Such a good hearted person. May our Lord comfort his family during this difficult time.

“ My deepest condolences to the Johnson family. Stanley was a super guy and will deeply missed. Many days Stanley and I would be in the Break room getting coffee. There we would talk about football, he was a big Eagle fan and I am a Falcon fan. We would discuss how good or bad our teams were doing. We also would talk about our cars. Stanleys Mercedes and my Dodge Challenger. Stanley kept his car spotless , never seen someone that could keep a car that clean every day. Stanley was my friend and will be missed. GOD BLESS HIS SOUL AND REST IN PEACE.

“ My deepest condolences to Hazelann and the Johnson family. I have so many fond memories of Stanley through the years such as his wedding day which was a beautiful ceremony. His love for Hazelann shone through his eyes when he was in her presence. I remember his support when I got married and I will never forget his smile which lit up his whole face. I also won't ever forget how terrified I was when he gave me a ride in his car many years ago and I almost had a heart attack because of how fast and aggressively he drove and swore I would never let Stanley drive me ever again😭. He will be missed. MHSRIP.

“ Stanley Johnson was one of those rare individuals that when you meet someone like him, you know instantly that there is an immediate feeling of kinship, that you like the person very much right off and that the two of you will be good friends. Stanley leaves behind all of us at Source Support Services who knew him not just as a co-worker, colleague or someone we often saw in the halls or in meetings, but as family and we will miss him always. I, personally, will miss his ready smile, his willingness to serve in any way, his skills, his expertise, his honesty, his integrity and his humanity. But above all, I will miss him as a dear friend.

To Stanley's family, especially his dear mother, of whom he spoke often and with love, I extend my heartfelt condolences and pray the Lord comfort you in your sorrow and that your memories of Stanley may fulfill a measure of joy in your remembrances.
