“ Stefanie Michele!!! I wept hearing the sad sad news of one of my most beloved friends and Bloomingdales companions. Stefanie was like the room mother to us all in the crazy ladies shoes department. She was the toughest and hardest workers and had the best work ethic. She never let any of us get away with anything. And Dominique is her EVERYTHING!! RIP dear Stefanie Michele...Love you, Kimberly Ann.

“ Dominque, your relationship with your Mom was something she was so very proud of. When you left for college she beamed with pride. Your accomplishments and the women you became were her greatest joy. Stephanie was a constant partner for me along with everyone else at Bloomingdales. My prayers are with you during this unimaginable difficult time.

“ A wonderful co-worker, friend, mother, woman, and all the above. I had the pleasure of working with Stefanie, and the joy of life and love exuded from her. There are too many memories to share, but they all will never be forgotten.

Met Stephanie 9 years ago and she soon become someone I would talk to almost on a daily basis. We bonded on being moms. She was so very proud of her daughter and we talked about her trip to Europe. I would asked if she coming home for college break n she always so happy just to chat about our girls. I loved her admired her and would give anything to just see her going to get her Starbucks. Steph you were one of a kind. One of the most amazing woman ive met.
I will never forget you.
Rest well sis.
