“ I’m so lost for words. I’ve been knowing Stephanie since we were teens I met her through my father by him working with her mother. We would hang out when I would come to ATL from La. to visit for the summer we had some good time all the way to adulthood. She was such a beautiful person.

I’m so sorry to hear of her passing. I send my deepest sympathy and condolences to her family.. May God give you strength and peace during such a difficult time.

“ Words cannot express the sadness I felt when hearing of Stepanie’s passing. I was the first person to train her on the DIOSS. We instantly hit it off and she was so easy to train. My prayers are for her children and husband and family. That God will strengthen, encourage and keep them in His amazing grace and mercy.
