My Uncle Steve today saying goodbye to you was very difficult as I drove my heart was pounding, but when I saw that smile on your face my heart lit up, I knew then that you were in the loving arms of our heavenly father. I would miss all the fun times celebrating, dancing, laughing, singing but I am convince that you are smiling down and saying..... My work is done but I have left LOTS of trained, soldiers to carry on your seven wonderful children, Rohan, Pat, Steve, Harritte, Cheryl, Richard and Allo. Aunt Olive will be spoilt and loved as she always is by ALL. The Grand Children and Great Grands will carry on your Legacy and Sore very high after all their Grand Dad is Steven Perry. Rest in Peace, sleep on Uncle I Love you so much I feel so privileged to have known you ALL my years on earth. Goodbye until we meet again.

“ I will always remember the love he had for his family! He never failed to show it and you only had to spend a few minutes with him to see it. Whenever I visited he always reminded me to take care of myself so I would enjoy better health than he did and then he would say something funny to lighten the mood! He was one of the strongest people I knew because he fought and won a lot of battles. He did not loose this battle, God decided he did not want him to fight anymore and took him to a better place so he can rest! I thank God and his family especially Allison, for sharing him with us and with me! May he rest in eternal peace! We will miss you!

“ In this restless world of struggle
it is very hard to find Answers to the questions that daily come to mind
We cannot see the future,
what's beyond is still unknown,
For the secret of God's Kingdom
still belongs to Him alone
But He granted us salvation
when His Son was crucified,
For life became immortal
because our Saviour died

Still with us....

Do not stand by my grave and weep

I am not there. I do not sleep.

I am a thousand winds that blow;

I am a diamond glint on snow.

I am the sunlight on ripened grain;

I am the gentle autumn rain.

When you awake in the morning hush

I am the swift uplifting rush

Of quiet birds in circling flight.

I am the soft star shine at night..

Do not stand by my grave and cry.

I am not there.....I DID NOT DIE.

Rest in peace, dear brother.

“ Our beloved friend and brother Stephen we remember you thus after over 40 years of loving friendship.
“Your gentle face and patient smile,
With sadness we recall,
You had a kindly word for each
And died beloved by all.
The voice is mute and stilled the heart
That loved us well and true,
Ah, bitter was the trial to part
From one so good as you.
You are not forgotten loved one
Nor will you ever be
As long as life and memory last
We will remember thee
We miss you now, our hearts are sore,
As time goes by we miss you more
Your loving smile, your gentle face,
No one can take your vacant place”
Rest eternal grant unto our beloved brother O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon him. May he Rest In Peace and rise in Glory 🙏🙏

I also cherish many childhood memories of visiting the Family and my many sleep overs and having the opportunity to have a close up view of a man who was a real daddy to his children and all children who came into contact with him. My heartfelt sympathy to my dear second family. Uncle Steve has been a very big part of my growing up throughout my life in Guyana.

Wherever the Baird's family go, the Perry's follow or visa versa. Here we are again, in Atlanta. 60+ years of friendships, this is more like family.

We were blessed to have Uncle Steve in our lives for 89 years and we can hold on to lots of beautiful memories of the times we shared together.

The laughter, the celebrations of births, deaths, weddings anniversaries and list goes on.

The two families knew that we can call on each other anytime. Aunty Olive, as I look at the two of you together, I can feel the love that you shared.

To all my brothers and sisters, I am not able to be with you during this very sad time, but you are in my thoughts and prayers. May God give you the strength and comfort as we say our goodbye to an amazing man.

I love you very much.

My dearest Uncle Steve, sleep peacefully.

Rest In Eternal Peace. 🙏🙏❤️
