

Steve Dale Golden

September 16, 1959 - November 23, 2023

Steve Dale Golden was born September 16, 1959, to the late Mr. Richard and Mrs. Charlene Golden in Louisville, Kentucky. Steve was born at Louisville General Hospital. Steve was affectionally known as “The Bird Man” due to his running ability by his childhood friends. He was the protector of his sisters and a forever best friend to his brothers. He always had a very special bond with his mother; he was her protector at an early age. Steve had a love for music and played the Trumpet in junior high school which lead to his love for jazz as an adult. His exceptional basketball skills afforded him a spot on the Southern High School varsity boys basketball team in his senior year. Steve attended Shiloh Baptist Church in Louisville, Kentucky.

Steve was educated in the Jefferson County public school system and was a Class of 1977 graduate of Southern High School. Steve joined the United States Navy right after graduation at the age of 17. He was known as YN1 Steve D. Golden during his years in the Navy and served at NTC Orlando, USS parsons, USS Oklahoma City, NAVST San Diego, NR MIUW 11, SIMA Long Beach, NMCRC Eugene, REDCOM 22, and VFC13. He proudly served for 23 years before his retirement on September 30, 2000. After his retirement form the Navy, he relocated to Atlanta, Georgia. In July of 2000, he began his civilian career as a PSO and was assigned to the Internal Revenue Service Customer Service Center in Chamblee, Georgia. He worked at this location as an employee of Paragon Systems until the time of his passing. Steve was well loved and respected by his colleagues and those that he served daily.

In February of 2011, he met Camishe and that was the beginning of their perfectly imperfect love affair. On December 25, 2016, he made a Golden move and asked for her hand in marriage. Their union was confirmed in front of a host of family and friends on November 11, 2017. What better way to honor her Veteran than by becoming his wife, and it was a "Golden Affair"! Steve leaves to cherish his memory: his loving and devoted wife, Mrs. Camishe J. Golden; daughters, Tynecia Darden and Sydney Darden; siblings, Reverend Donald Bobbitt (Janice), Elaine Clark, Annetta Williams, Richard Golden, Jr., and Eileen Golden Clark; uncle, Jimmy Williams; aunt, Annie Tucker; mother-in-law and father-in-law, Bernard and Linda James; sister-in-law, brother-in-law, Stacey Jones, Sr., and Jacquice Jones; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other family, and friends. His infectious smile will forever be an imprint in our hearts.

Together we were one

Two perfectly imperfect people with similar qualities and characteristics With a love for each other that was as good as it was possible to be The love we shared was not perfect or incomplete

However, we shared an intentional love for each other that was purposeful and deliberate and special to me Although, you are no longer physically present and here with me

My love for you will last for an eternity.

By: Your wife, Camishe Golden

“ Away
I cannot say, and I will not say
That she is dead. She is just away.
With a cheery smile, and a wave of the hand,
She has wandered into an unknown land
And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be, since she lingers there.
And you—oh you, who the wildest yearn
For an old-time step, and the glad return,
Think of her faring on, as dear
In the love of There as the love of Here.
Think of her still as the same. I say,
She is not dead—she is just away.”

— James Whitcomb Riley

Do not stand by my grave and weep
I am not there - I do not sleep
I am a thousand winds that blow
I am the diamond glitter on the snow,
I am the sunshine on the ripened grain.
I am the gentle Autumn rain.
And though it's time to say good-bye
My love for you will never die

“ Golden was such a delight. He was a rare gift, given to the Internal Revenue Service. The whole first floor was brighter from the flickering of his light and bright smile. My husband would enjoy their daily conversation especially since they both were from Louisville. He always greeted us with integrity and respect. He will certainly be missed. Our deepest condolence to the family, may God be with you all.

“ I'm one of the workers that Steve and others helped protect. The place isn't the same without him. His smile and manners are very much missed. I remember one time he bailed me out of a jam. I had left my ID card when I left the building one day, but remembered right as I got out. I went back in but, without my ID card to let me pass the security desk, I couldn't go get my ID card! Steve would have been completely within his rights to tell me to call somebody still upstairs, and maybe help me find somebody to call, but he didn't. He escorted me to my desk and let me get my ID. I showed it to him to let him see it was mine, and then we both went back downstairs. He continued his work, and I left for the day. I really appreciated the extra help he gave me.

“ Hey, Mr. Steve. I hope you are in Heaven watching Star Trek or those old black-and-white films. Mommy and Cece miss you a lot. Cece knows you are no longer here, but I think you visited her a few nights ago because she was staring at the door. I'll miss you, and please continue to be there in spirit for Mommy. Thank you for teaching me how to play blackjack and dominos. And taking me to get fireworks up in morrow and when we went to the World of Coke and the Civil Rights Center. I don't know who will kill the bugs in the spring when a wasp gets to the house 😂, but when that time gets here, then we will deal with it. I have been seeing many cars just like yours, so I take it as you saying that you are okay. I'm sorry you are not here anymore. I find peace knowing you are in Heaven. I'm not going to say Goodbye but See you later.

Oh and I want you falcons jacket too 😂 (I don't know if mommy gonna let me get it). But if you see me with it on just know I'm going to do it justice.

Whenever I encountered Mr. Golden, his greeting would always be pleasant, professional, and courteous. I would always poke-fun at him by asking, "Do you ever take a day off?", because he seemed to always be here, at the Service, when I arrived and when I left. He indeed was a hard worker. “ Mr Steve Golden, but I always called you “G”. Worked with you for almost 23 years. I could still see you face always beaming in smiles. Soft spoken dedicated to your job, always on time and only called out when it was necessary. I opened my little cubicle (my post) and the key is still fixed on the lock, no one to take it back to the console because you are not here. G, your absence has created a big vacuum, who can do it like G? Loved by so many, had no issues with anyone. Post 5 to post 2, I need 10/100, Oh no one shows up, G is not here. Death you have done your worst. That Thursday morning, we were waiting and calling on you, never knew you were trapped on a journey never to come back to us. G my co-worker, my friend I am missing you. Audio, May the Good Lord receive your Soul. My prayers go out to your wife and other family members, the Lord will console them all. Mr. Golden, I never knew your name until today, yet I felt a sense of loss and sadness upon learning of your death. Although we never said anything more than hello to one another as I rushed out of the building at the end of my TOD on Wednesdays, your kindness impacted me every time you opened the door for me.
