Steven (Steve) Cane, Jr. was born in Washington, Louisiana on May 14, 1935 to Addie and Steven Cane, Sr. He received his early education in St. Landry Parish. Steve relocated from Louisiana to Los Angeles, CA in 1954. While in Los Angeles, he worked as a chef and an electronic technician. In 1997, Steve and his wife, Bettye, moved to Lawrenceville, GA. He was a true witness of God as he was very active in his church and a member of the usher board. He enjoyed being with family and friends. It was often said about Steve “he never met a stranger”. Steve enjoyed working around the house doing gardening, especially in his rose garden. He also enjoyed cooking and entertaining people.

Steve was preceded in death by his parents, Addie and Steven Cane, Sr.; daughter, Sylvia Cane Bailey; three brothers, Frederick Fisher, Lawrence Cane, Sr., and Mervin Cane; three sisters, Mary Lou August, Shirley Mae Cane, and Lucille Cane Ford.

Steven Cane, Jr. leaves to cherish his memories, his wife, Bettye Cane; one son, Steven Cane, III (Monica) of Manteca, CA; one daughter, Stephanie Cane of Rialto, CA; one step-daughter, Velda Olivier of Newark, CA; two sisters, Hinda Mae Semien of Palmetto, LA and Rosa Lee Hudson of Los Angeles, CA; nine grandchildren, nine great-grandchildren, and a host of nieces and nephews, relatives and friends.

Granddaddy was an amazing father and grandfather! He always had a way of making everyone feel like they were his favorite person. He taught me to love and to treat all people with respect and kindness. And to be true to who I am in Christ. I love you and miss you greatly!

Deion Redmond I would like to know who you are::: because I never heard of you and would like to more about you. Would you please leave me a phone #,email or someway to contact you because it appears that Steven Cane was your Father as you indicated & I am his wife and if I had know about you maybe you wouldn't be so bitter. If you haven't you probably need to talk to your mother to find out more, to see if she knew that he was married. I also want to know how old are you? I also understand somewhat how you feel but when I saw your comment I was blindsided.

“ I met Steve several years ago through his wife Betty who grew up with me in a small country town called Scarlet outside of Woodbine Georgia. Steve had an infectious smile and demeanor that clicked with my husband and me and we became friends. Each time he and Betty came to town he made a stop by our home to laugh and talk with us. After my husband passed he would call to check on me and leave me smiling when we hung up. In fact, he surprised me with a call a few weeks ago just to see how I was doing. I will miss our chats and laughs but will always have a smile on my face when I think of him. Betty and family and friends, may we all find courage in God's promise of eternal life knowing that Steve's spirit lives and he loves us still. Honor him with YOUR smile. I love you, Joanne Mainor

“ Steve Jr. (a.k.a Granddaddy) was such a wonderful father-in-law. He always showed me unconditional love and he sure did love to brag about all of his grandkids in a way that made you feel special. One of the things I appreciate so much , especially the last few years was how he shared his sincere faith in God on good days and bad, which blessed me more than he could imagine. I love you granddaddy. Until we meet again.

“ Steve will be missed from his "family" in California greatly.
Seeing him each day for 3 years was such a joy!

Steve was a very gentle and loving man of God who brought joy to everyone he came in touch with.

Bettye took care of my daughters for 3 years and each day Steve would say "Give Steve some sugar!" and they would pass out kisses and give him big hugs.

Such an important time in the lives of my family to have such wonderful people taking care of my most precious gifts from God. So blessed to have know Steve.

Praying for comfort for the family in knowing that Steve is at peace and no longer in pain.

God Bless you all.

Love always, Beth, Ron, Megan, and Amber Pigeon-your California Family :)
