“ I first met Steve in North Carolina on base way back when we were wee little bits. Our fathers served in Vietnam together, then both of our families relocated to MS. I still remember our family get togethers/outings/birthday parties; they were such fun times! The years went by and we lost contact. I was happy to connect with you and Alicia on Facebook. Finding out that you've gone was such a shock; I felt as if I'd lost a brother. RIP, dear friend, until we meet again.

“ Steve, I was really hurt to hear of your passing; I can still see you coming in the door at my parent's home when we were children; smiling big and hugging my Momma. Lord knows, I am so, so, sorry to hear of your passing. I pray for your wife and children, family and friends that they will find some measure of comfort and peace in the fond memories of you during this oh, so troubling time. I haven't seen you in over thirty years, but I remember you to be a great guy and awesome friend to my brother (Amp). I know he misses you tremendously and though I've not seen you, so do we (the Bailey family). If someone can think so fondly of you and haven't seen you in over three decades, you've lived well. (smile) Rest in peace. Rest in peace. - Pat "Tricia" Bailey, Montgomery, AL

“ To Steve's parents, siblings, wife & family-- no one need tell you the treasure Steve is. My deepest sympathy. Many mourn with you and extend our gratitude for the treasure you shared with us. A generally easygoing, lighthearted, affable, peaceable guy, Steve loved his blood fiercely, & his friends who he made family. Once Steve claimed you as a friend, a forever bond was forged. If he decided you were his brother or sister, he meant it. Steve would not countenance a bully, and would not be bullied. Countless times when darkness seemed to abound, Steve buoyed my spirit. Many, many people can testify the same. He will forever be my brother, and I forever grateful that he adopted me. Alicia, the mantle is passed. Carry on. You know if you need me, don't hesitate....
