“ *We were saddened to hear of Steve's passing. I remember when Brenda married Steve and he accepted all her friends as his friends. He was very special to the JFK Class of 1969. He attended all our class functions. We all love you Steve but God loves you best. He has more plans for you on the other side because you are so special. Rest peacefully in heaven. My Uncle Steve was a first-rate gentlemen and class act, through and through. Coming from a time when men stood firm and talked straight, he always had a bit of wisdom to share. Which was a blessing for us, considering he had the voice of a smooth jazz radio announcer. He led a life committed to serving others and set an excellent example for us to follow. Thank you for allowing us to play pool and listen to records in the basement. May these words light your path as you ascend to the great beyond. Sleep in Heavenly Peace.

My name is Larry Gordley. I live in Yorktown Va, but went to high school in Wilmington, Ohio with your uncle Steve. Your description is the best I've read. As with most rural white towns, racist beliefs ran deep in Wilmington. But people like your uncle have gradually changed minds. For me, the best proof of that change is an incident I recently experienced, which my high school class would have thought impossible to ever happen to me, their white football captain. I found myself getting a prostate exam by a black finger, which belongs to a lady physician that I highly respect. I know now that without people like your uncle, that would never have happened. Truly a life to celebrate.
