“ Sending thoughts and prayers to the Aiyejorun Family from Acura Carland staff. This was shocking and very sad news to hear. Mr. Aiyejorun has always been such a pleasant guy to deal with and it's really heart breaking to hear the news of his untimely passing. Our hearts go out to his wife and the whole family as I'm sure this has been difficult to come to grips with. May he rest in peace. His spirit will live on in the hearts and minds of many.

“ To say I was shocked to hear about your demise is an understatement. You lived a life worth emulating. You cared about everyone you came in contact with. I will never forget how you took my son to the side at a naming ceremony we both attended and taught him the fundamentals of Simultaneous Equation because he told you he was struggling with it. A selfless and gentle soul. To Auntie, children and grandchild, may the Almighty God continue to console you. Adieu Uncle Sunday!!! May you rest in perfect peace.

“ Papa Sunday, you are now and will always be a remarkable and kind man. I never saw you without a smile on your face, and you always made me feel welcome. You always looked people in the eye when you talked to and engaged with them. That is a true sign of a humble and honest man. Thanks for the laughs, you will truly be missed.

“ The passing of Mr. Sunday Aiyejorun is a shock to me and my family. Words cannot express our profound and heartfelt condolences to his family. Mr. Aiyejorun tremendously affected the life of everyone that the Lord brought to know him. I always described him as a “naturally good person”. I learnt so much from his solemn and goodhearted advice. He was my hero! I will miss his cool, wise, and honorable demeanor. Our community will miss you! So long, my brother, till we meet again. May his Soul rest in Perfect Peace!
