“ Sister Judge was a beautiful person both inside and out. She was extraordinarily kind and generous. We had many good times in the ministry and even went to Pioneer School together. I am comforted knowing she is safe in God's memory waiting for Jesus' call in the resurrection to come. My deepest sympathy to the Judge family and friends.

*Love,

“ There are so many memories I can share about this beautiful lady that I called mom. She was more of a God- mother to me and grandmother to my children. I could remember I couldn't afford daycare here in Atlanta for my youngest son and she said “ bring that baby to me, I'll keep him” and she did just what she said and kept my son Joshua from 6 weeks until he started school. I already miss her so much. Take your rest mom. We love you! 🙏😊
