“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the friends and the family of Mother Susie Harper. The loss of a love one brings us the anguish of grief. We can find comfort and hope in God’s word, the bible. The promise of a resurrection at Acts 24:15, John 11:25 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. In your time of sorrow you can draw closer to God in prayer. ~James 4:8. For more bible answers, please go to jw.org

“ To the Family Susie Harper my sincere condolences. Losing a loved one in death is never easy. It is hard to watch our loved ones suffer. We can be comforted by the words of our Heavenly Father at Isaiah 33:24. He promises that the illnesses we face today will be a thing of the past. At Revelation 21:3,4 he tells us these very issues will be done away with. I hope these words and the love and support of Family and friends will help you through this difficult period.

“ To the family and friends of Susie we send our condolences, when the enemy death strikes, your grief can be great, But the God of all comfort provide us encouragement at John 5:28,29. He promise us that we can see our love ones who have fallen asleep in death again. Until then we long for the day when there will be "no more death nor mourning" (Revelation 21:3,4. Hope you find comfort in these scriptures.

“ I offer condolences and Scriptural encouragement to the family and friends of Mrs. Harper. Please keep in mind that "God is for us a refuge and strength, a help that is readily found in times of distress." ~Psalm 46:1. Jesus confirmed his role in restoring dead ones to life when he said: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one exercising faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." ~John 11:25.
