“Mama if I knew this would be last time I would've seen your beautiful face, and your last photo on this earth; I would have squeezed you tighter and say some more meaningful things, and prayed a little longer; Instead of running jokes. I'm just happy I was able to make you smile, even if it cost my face not to be fully in the picture 😊. I thank almighty God of David for removing all your aches and pain. Even though we have lost our anchor, our rock, who has held each of us, changed all our diapers as babies, mold and guided as children into adulthood. We take comfort knowing we have gained an angel, who even in her next life will continue guide and protect us. I love and miss you dearly Mama our father up in heaven really takes the best amongst us. The world has lost a true beacon. There's not one day since your passing that I haven't cried. I see you everywhere and in everything I do. I see you humming while cooking, cleaning, fixing my hair, bathing, even at the grocery store when I pass the red and white peppermint soft candies. You're that golden thread that has managed to weave your tapestry throughout our lives, and I know pretty soon I will have a golden patch made by you, for this hole that is left in my heart; due to your passing. Mama that day has yet to come but when it does, I will proudly wear my gold patch. I love you, may your spirit reign and continue to shine as bright as you did on earth.

“ My sweet lovable Mama. You will be sincerely missed. I love you now and always. I hope you're dancing with your sisters, playing ludo with Aunt Alice while listening to Aunt Lou play the piano. Then to granny reading a scripture or story. You would always send the angels when I was leaving as protection and love. The angels came and took you to a better place where there will be no more pain but joy forever. Soar my sweet Mama and I hope you dance!.

“ I am going to miss Mama dearly. I was able to talk to Mama when something was bothering me and she would give me advice. She was a good lady. Mama would always tell me when I left “I am sending the angels with you” so she is my angel watching over me now. RIP Mama!! I Love You!!

To know Mrs Sybil Wright is to love her, she never met a stranger. The Lord has chosen to call her home and she will be greatly missed. We have not lost her, she is only absent from the body but present with the Lord. To her family....she will always be around you, if you look good you will see her. Rest In Peace Aunty Mae, the MEMORIES you leave behind will live on.

“ Dear Mama you were my rock, my biggest cheer leader and my angel.

"Send the angels 🙏 " has taken on a new meaning since you have earned your angel wings.

I know you will always be with me and will continue to love me unconditionally.

My entire world turned upside down and inside out when you went home but I take comfort in knowing that you have no more pain and you are with grandfather, aunt Alice and all the others that have been patiently waiting for you to join them.

You have shown me what it means to love unconditionally and I will forever be in your debt. I will love you always and forever.

Rest in peace "young girl", you will live on in our hearts and minds because you're simply the best....better than ALL the rest!

“ Mama was a one of a kind! She was there throughout EVERYONE'S upbringing. It was more than a blessing to have been around her side for 22 years! Not to mention her wisdom and her jokes were something else! I'm grateful to know that she left us knowing that we loved her just as much as she loved us! I'm also glad that she was able to see me play music for her during her last days. Obviously, I'm going to miss her more than ever! May your soul rest in peace, Mama! Your memories will never fade away!🕊️

“ Mama is one of the many amazing people who have shown me what unconditional love is. From birthdays to thanksgiving dinners, mama was always there to make us smile, share wisdom, and make us laugh with her jokes. Don't even get me started on her outfits: she was the ultimate fashionista 🙌❤❤. I'm so happy to have spent 20 wonderful years with her and it's still hard to believe that she's gone. You'll forever be loved and your legacy will be passed on for generations to come. I love you mama. May your soul Rest In Peace 🙏 Give grandpa a big hug up there for me❤

“ Mama if it was not for you supporting me and my family through, the years I would have never truly known what a family is. I am sad that it took u leaving me for me to truly 😞 realize that meaning. I will 4 ever be led by ur wise and unbiased , unconditional love. The " angels" mama. They finally took u back to where u truly came from Heaven! I love u,
Doc

My beautiful aunty May. As I only remembered the good times with her, she never shouted at me even when she was telling Lisa to get out the bed, she let me chill. 😊

*You could smell her sweet cooking from the minute you enter Bunyan crescent. Not to mention she was a hott mama when she dress everything matched, I use to take her jewellery and forgot to return...
🌀 Aww her smiles, tickles and jokes when I saw her singing in the church choir made me felt happy to be her niece. She had a big heart towards her family everyone lived with her at some point.*

Even when I came to Atlanta she took me to her barbie doll room and gave me a piece of jewellery of which I will keep forever. My daughters never get to meet your beautiful soul but they all think you and grandma look alike. Sleep in piece Aunty, your sister Horntense, your nieces, nephews and all the grandkids everywhere will miss you. 🙏🙏

❤️❤️❤️ Sending hugs to the rest of my family in America keep strong in this time. 💪
