“ So at a loss for words. Even though I hadn't talked to Sylvia in years, I often thought of her. She was a dear childhood friend. My deepest condolences to her family and friends. Praying for your strength during this difficult time.

Sylvia was a Beautiful spirit. She touched my heart in my youth. She was a friend. Years has gone by since I've seen her. Beginning in her presence brought joy, peace and love. God has plucked a Beautiful flower. God is Love. He will never leave us, nor forsake us. We all have our appointed time. To be with Him. This earth is not our home. Now is the time to get ready. So we will be ready when He comes for you. Love and Peace to the family. Great Grace, and Great Favor be with you all. Amen

“ I am still in shock; even though I realize people pass away everyday. Sylvia was a special woman in so many ways and mature beyond her years as kids. We as kids were close because our families were close with her Father Reverend Taylor being our pastor at Selvia Chapel in Greenville. She fought the good fight against Cancer. Forever a blessing to all that knew her...Glory. 🙏

“ I would like to send my condolences to the family of my friend Sylvia. Sylvia was more than a coworker to me, indeed she was friend who loved God. She and I would sit in the morning times and she would talk to me. Even in pain she pushed and many times she would ask will you pray for me? I prayed and we go on about our day. She would teams me and I would teams her Are you OK? Her reply would be I'm good God got me. She will truly be missed.

“ Sylvia and I went to elementary, high school (JHRose, Greenville, NC) and college (NC A&T State University, Greensboro) together. I remember during a time in my life almost 30 years ago, I had given my life to Christ and we had a conversation. She told me to write down my prayers and mark them off as God answered them, and sure enough, those prayers came to pass. We had since connected again on FB many years ago. She will always be remembered as caring, giving, compassionate and such an encouragement. My heart and prayers go out to her family and friends. Sleep well, my Rampant 🍷💚 and Aggie friend 💙💛
