“ My prayer...9/19/2025...

Precious Lord take my hand, lead me on, let me stand, I am tired, I am weak, I am worn. Through the storm through the night lead me on to the light. Take my hand Precious Lord and lead me home.

Today is the day the Lord has made and I will rejoice and be glad in it. Tomorrow I attend the homegoing service of Sylvia Waddle, the wife of Elder Waddle, of New Birth M. B. Church where we all met.

Theirs was a strong marriage that lasted till death do us part. I am glad that I got to know them. Losing loved ones is a hard road to face no matter how long they have been with us. There is consolation in knowing we will see each other again. There is so much hope in that. But in all honesty it hurts right now and it is that pain of loneliness that only God can feel. And though the prayers and condolences are very much appreciated they fade away as time goes on. New memories, new joys come along and God takes away the pain in our time. So we laugh, cry, remember, console for now as the pain is real. But more than all that we are thankful. Thankful that we knew her. Thankful that we shared a smile, a laugh, some memory. Thankful that we had a time together.

William Shakespeare said, "Parting is such sweet sorrow." So today is a "Sweet Sorrow" for a saint has gone to see Jesus, gone home. When we've been gone a long time there is a peace in pulling up in the driveway to be home. I can't imagine pulling up to Heaven's golden gates and finally getting home. Oh, how beautiful that must be. Not something for us to dread, but to look forward to. Let us be thankful that our journey of life will lead us all home one day. So for now let love abound in our hearts for all we meet and see. Just as Christ loves us. In Jesus name I pray. Amen, amen, and amen.

Sabrena

And this is the promise that he hath promised us, even eternal life.

“ Elder Waddell & Family,

We are deeply saddened to hear of the passing of your beloved wife, mother, and friend. Please accept our heartfelt condolences during this time of immense sorrow.

She was a truly godly woman, gracious, faithful, and filled with the quiet strength that comes from walking closely with the Lord. Her life was a beautiful example of love in action, and she touched the hearts of those who had the privilege of knowing her.

To Elder Waddell, the bond you shared over so many years was a testimony to the beauty of a Christ-centered marriage. And to her children, your mother's love and faith will always be a part of you, woven into your hearts and your lives in ways that time cannot erase.

Though her absence leaves a deep ache, we pray that you find comfort in the memories you cherish, the love that surrounds you, and the hope we have in Christ, that this is not the end, but a moment before eternal reunion.

May the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, guard your hearts and minds in the days ahead.

“ Maurice, Ashley, Andre & Family
Now that Sylvia has completed her earthly journey, it truly does matter that she lived(as Bishop Long always taught us). The JOY, WISDOM & LAUGHTER she brought to each life she touched has made an indelible impression in our hearts. From teaching together in WOTP, to our unforgettable Chico shopping sprees, I'll always remember Sylvia as truly a very special friend & WOMAN of GOD who blessed my life tremendously! Maurice-you were 2nd only to JESUS in her heart. Ashley & Andre-she loved you with the deepest of motherly love & grandchildren made her joy complete. I pray GOD'S manifested presence of PEACE, BLESSINGS & ENDURING STRENGTH to each of you & the rest of your family.

“ Maurice & Family

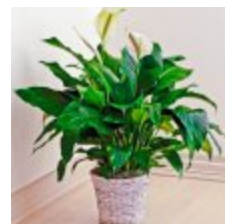

On behalf of the entire Stone Family we wish to convey our sincere condolences to the family of our dear friend and Sister Mrs. Sylvia Jones Waddell. Sylvia always maintained a pleasant, positive, and enthusiastic demeanor and her life reflected the fruit of the Spirit, which is love, joy, peace, forbearance, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control which served as an inspiration for many. Upon learning of the passing of your beloved Wife and Mother we would like to take just a moment to extend our heartfelt sympathy to the entire family. As you know Maurice we began our friendship journey over 45 years ago as young Newlyweds eager to find our place in the world and have remained as friends ever since. To Ashley and Andre stay strong and be that Rock for the rest of the family and please know that we are here for you. I leave these words of the Great Psalmist with you “Cast your burdens on the Lord and he will sustain you; he will never let the righteous be shaken.” Psalms 55:22, I hope that time and memories will help lessen the burden of your sorrow and that you may draw some measure of comfort knowing that others care and share in your loss. Please know that we love each and everyone of you and will continue with you all in our hearts and in our prayers. May God continue to bless and keep you forever.

To Elder Maurice & family

It's hard to express how deeply I feel your loss of someone as special as Sister Sylvia. We grew up together as best friends. Even though we lived in a different state, we never lost that precious friendship. The Lord made our connection even stronger, sharing our feelings and secrets as only best friends can. Sylvia was full of wisdom, a good listener, not wanting to talk about her challenges but to listen to yours. I loved listening to her talk about her "Forever Love" Maurice & her deep love for her children & grandchildren. It touched my heart. Our journey growing up & attending college together will always be a special memory. Meeting Maurice was truly a Godsend for Sylvia, that love was to last a lifetime.

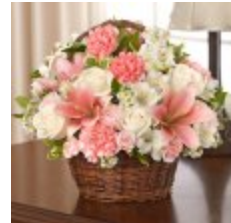

May you rest in the arms of Jesus my friend and enjoy the Beautiful Mansion He has prepared for you.

She was truly a ray of sunshine, always carrying the Spirit of Laughter wherever she went. I loved the way she spoke with authority and wisdom. She stood by my family during the loss of our child, served as MC at my 50th birthday celebration and many other events, and generously supported the causes I was passionate about.

Together, we shared the good, the bad, and the ugly as dear friends. She will forever hold a special place in my family's heart. My deepest condolences to her family. She leaves behind a lasting legacy of faith, wisdom, and joy.

“ In Loving Memory of Sylvia Jones Waddell

May the Lord's peace surround the family as they celebrate a life well lived. "The Lord is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit" (Psalm 34:18). May her memory bring warm comfort to her family and friends!

“ I extend my deepest condolences to the Waddell Family. Elder Waddell, you and Deaconess Sylvia have been pillars of strength, servant leadership, excellence and faithfulness to New Birth. Thank you for sharing your Queen, with us with her feisty spirit, humor and demonstrations of class. I thank you for the care and love I have observed in the distance, of you and your family silently providing her excellence as caregivers.

I will always remember Sylvia's feisty spirit and her wisdom when I was a young deacon's wife — reminding me to serve faithfully, but also to rest, because the church would always be there. Her words remain with me even now.

Family, as you walk in the days ahead, may the peace of God that surpasses all understanding guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus (Philippians 4:7). May He restore your soul, renew your strength, and bring comfort to your family beyond this moment of farewell.

I hope it goes without saying, your New Birth family stands with you — not just in words, but in action — with love, support, and gratitude for all you and your wife have poured into this ministry.

*With love, ongoing prayers and great reverence,
Min. Tonya Harris*

“ Sylvia IS the epitome of class & grace. A wonderful mixture of beauty and brains. She LOVED her family, friends and church. Personally, I loved her sense of humor, poise and admired that there was never a hair out of place. 😊
Sylvia has always been a blessing to our family and her passing leaves a void.
Maurice .. you are amazing!
Ashley, Andre and families .. you lived Exodus 20:12, to the fullest.
Love you all

Our sincere Condolences, the Armotrading sends our prayers to Elder Waddell and family. Sylvia had a heart of gold. I got to know and experience her love for people when I served in the Shelter Ministry with Valerie McKay. Sylvia always had a smile that warmed your heart. She will be missed. May God strength you always!
