“ Aaron, Racquel, Takara and entire family,

I know words cannot express what you must be feeling, during this time of sorrow. I do know there is a special place inside your hearts where love lives always and the beautiful memories of your mother and father will outlast the pain of grief and will never be forgotten. Family, remember “sorrow is a memory of happy yesterday and memories live on and on while sorrow fade away.” If I’ve learned anything through the years, with my past death experience, is that nothing so beautiful in the world is ever really lost. Those we cherish will always be in our memory and hearts. My prayers and thoughts are with you and your family, may God continue to bless you all.
