ME

My condolences goes out to the Sherrer and Curtis family. I have know Tanneshia for a long time and she always had a smile. She was my daughter's classmate. I enjoyed watching her in the band. You all are in my prayers for the good Lord to strengthen you in a mighty way.

You will truly be missed and never forgotten. All the memories of you have been rushing through my mind. I was the matron of honor at your wedding. You was the godmother to my youngest son. All the long talks we had and the things we shared. I know you are in the presence of the Lord but I just wish we had more time with you on this side. My prayers of strength and comfort to your Husband and kids and to your parents and brother. The hard part is just not seeing or talking to you. The easy part is we know where you are. More alive than ever in the presence of God. See you in the morning.....April Douglas & family.
