

Tarik Asheber

August 31, 1985 - March 2, 2025

Tarik Asheber was born in Islington, London on August 31, 1985 to Shomari and Normalee Asheber. He embarked on his final journey on March 2, 2025 in Petoria, South Africa after suffering an asthma episode.

Tarik lived a life filled with adventure and travel. He was fun, loving, patient, free spirited and enjoyed the finer things in life. He is known for his warm smile, impeccable demeanor and attention to detail. Tarik had a love for fashion and he dabbled a bit in modeling. His hat collection was always on par with his choice of clothing. Tarik's entrepreneurial spirit and his strong belief in being his own boss took him to South Africa, where he ventured into sales of precious metals.

Tarik's secondary education began at Stephenson High School. After graduation he enrolled at Georgia State College where he completed two years of studies. Becoming uneasy with the pace of College Life, Tarik enlisted in the army. Soon after enlisting he was deployed to the front lines of the Gulf War. Loving his experience with the army, it was short lived as his exposure to combat exacerbated Tarik's asthma.

Tarik is survived by his son Kylan Asheber, Mother, Brothers, Cousins, Aunts, Uncles, and a Host of Family & Friends.

Tarik will be missed dearly by his beloved family and friends. He touched the lives of many and will be remembered fondly for his compassion and gentle spirit.

Tarik may have left this world but his love and memories will continue to live in the hearts of all who knew him.

“ My father my father over shadow my nephew soul in your heavenly home and keep is soul in your hands in your name sake amen I thank you my father

I am not resigned to the shutting away of loving heart in the hard ground. So it is, and so it will be, for so it has been, time out of mind; into the darkness they go, the wise and the lovely. Crowned with lilies and with laurel they go; but I am not resigned.

Lovers and thinkers, into the earth with you.

Be one with the dull. The indiscriminate dust. A fragment of what you felt, of what you knew. A formula, a phrase remain, but the best is lost.

The answer quick and keen, the honest look, the laughter, the love.

They are gone. They have gone to feed the Rose's. Elegant and curled. Bbn is the blossom. Fragrant is the blossom. I know. But I do not approve.

More precious was the light in your eyes than all the roses in the world. Down, down, down into the darkness of the grave. Gentle, they go, the beautiful, the kind; Quietly they go. The intelligent, the witty, the brave. I know, but I do not approve. And I am not resigned.

Edna Millay.

“ My fondest and most memorable memory of Tarik was when he first came to visit me in Chicago back in 1987 he was 2 years old. He was the most handsome 2 year old I had ever seen. I would just pick him up and cuddle him and say my nephew is so cute and even till the day he died he was still the cutest in my eyes. Wish auntie had taken that invite to come visit you in South Africa. Love you Tarik. May your soul rest in eternal peace.
Gone but not forgotton.
