“ I met Tawana in the 70's during the DISCO era back in the Quad Cities. We were both in our very early 20's then and loved to dance together, We always had a good time when we were together. One morning she called to invite me over for breakfast and she made omellettes with all the fixing. Her smile was so genuine and her spirit was lively. Shortly after that we lost touch as I had moved away. It wasn't until about 2019 that I saw her name with a friend of mine on facebook and we hooked up through messaging over 40 years later. Little did I know that in 2020 God would call her home. Rest in Peace my friend. I will always remember you fondly. My deepest condolences to family.

“ Wow T. Tiaquana as I called her, I wondered why I didn't get a Jan BD call and texts got no reply. I finally Googled your name TODAY. I've been packing and moving, and settling since then (old age?). Also from IL., we went to my Sisters' Chicago wedding. We were Atl. Family in 80's & 90's, met as staff at GBMC. U took in your Sisters children from IL./IA. I will never forget that Club U took me to...Whoa. OH OH OH Tiaquana, lots of memories.

“ Tawana was my coworker. We didn't work next to each other every day, but I always looked forward to her coming into the office. We had some great conversations about life, cooking, and more while waiting for the tape pickup service to arrive. I miss you Tawana, I can't believe we won't have another good laugh together.

I just learned of Tawana's passing via Facebook. She and I were classmates in high school. She was always so sweet. I'll be lifting the family up in prayer. Weeping may endure for a night, but joy will come in the morning. May you all experience the comfort of the Holy Spirit during this season.
