“ It's so hard to say "Goodbye" to a soul so pure and bright A smile that lit up the world a ray of bright sunlight

Most of my memories of my cousin Tequila we're from days of old A beautiful, loving little girl with a heart of gold

Never in the days when I babysat her do I recall her acting out Never did she make me want to yell or holler, scream or shout

So sweet, thoughtful and respectful she stole the heart of everyone Her personality so bubbly and attractive Being around her was so much fun

She always offered to help me out with my brand new baby boy
She got his diapers and held up his bottle
He was her live, little breathing toy

Life's journeys set us all on different paths her parents moved far away
But the joy that she brung left such a great impression
It seems like only yesterday

Sadly I missed much of her life but my memories of her are strong The love that she had and freely gave will forever linger on

The strength of her Love was so strong

*she fought hard until the end She sat a goal and against all odds
She proved Love always win*

“ Awe man auntie, I can't believe this. Doesn't seem real...I remember me and my dad running into you at the grocery store in Houston (when I was in middle school) . Long story short you ended up taking me, my little sister, and Ray to the skating rink, a week later. (Sigh) 😔😭 And I just seen you recently. But now my auntie is my beautiful angel. I LOVE YOU FOREVER!!! 💜💜💜💜💜
