“ Kenneth,

Having experienced the same loss, I understand how difficult it is to lose your Mother. Please know that the thoughts and prayers of many are with you and your family at this time.

“ To the Family & Friends of Ms. Rideau:
May "the God of all comfort" grant you all peace as you keep his loving resurrection promises in mind. His Word assures us: "The hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out."

(John 5:28,29). Jesus confirmed his role in raising up ones who fall asleep in death when he said: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one exercising faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." (John 11:25). Remember...God is faithful and always keeps his promises! (Revelation 21:3-5).

“ Grief can be so hard, but our special memories help us cope during this most difficult time. May the God of all comfort and the love of your family give you the strength you need to endure. (2 Corinth. 1:3,4)

Kenneth, I am so sorry to hear of the death of your mother; however, knowing her son, she must have been an exceptional woman because she raised an exceptional son.
