“ I have so many memories, but I think ultimately the most important was every day in Pysch class and every week since he always texted me and/or called to check in. One day, he asked me what I was doing for myself and I talked about doing things but nothing for myself and he stopped me and said, "Okay. But what are you doing for YOURself?" and he was always working towards a better him and holding me to those standards too. Thank you for always being my dearest friend no matter what.

“ TJ,
You are the most generous, respectful, and kind hearted person I've ever known. You were the kind of influence that anyone would love to have for their children. You were like a big brother to Jamila and Jahaad and I want to thank you for that. You were family. You all are family and we will miss that smile and that caring spirit that you bring every time you come around. We love you and will miss you. You are all in our prayers.

“ I'd like to send me sincere condolences to Terrance's family. I met Terrance probably about 12 years ago and primarily knew him by his xbox gamer tag WarGodXD. He was a great friend and excelled at video games. My greatest memories of our friendship were staying up til 4am rotating through games like Halo, Call of Duty, and Minecraft. Those days got me through high school. And after I graduated from high school he came up to Baltimore too see all the homies in person for the first time. We then went on a small trip to Ocean city where we all participated in our young teenage juvenile activities lol. Years later our little group slowly separated a bit due to some guys not having time for the video games anymore and just life in general. But I knew for a fact that he was still one of those friends you have in life that you don't need to talk to everyday to get back to a bond. That was my guy whole heartedly. I love you WarGod. - Jordan M.

“ First of all my condolences go out to the entire family. Terrence wasn't just one of the nicest people I knew, he was the nicest person I've ever known. The joy he brought to the world reached across the country and I know I'll never meet another person like him. There wasn't an ounce of hate in his heart. He loved his family, friends, and his dog. Terrence, you wouldn't want me typing too much in front of your family so I won't. Just know I love you, I've loved you for over a decade and I will continue to do so for decades to come. I can't wait until we meet again. Rest easy Brother.
