“ It’s a couple of things I want to say but I’ll keep them to myself and save them for when we meet again. “Blood is always thicker than water.” Your strongest line of words. I don’t think it will ever register your gone but the emptiness that I’ll feel for a second when I remember I’ll fill it with all the good times. I’ll just take a walk on the beach because one day that’s where I hope we meet again. By the Beach but next time it’ll be a clear water beach. Love you Terrence always ❤️ -Minica

“ I met Terrance in Post Oaks apartments when I was in 6 grade He instantly became my friend. He later became my best friend. He was always just a phone calls away. We had so many memories together. One in particular was when someone when someone pushed me in the pool he realized I couldn't swim he jumped in and saved me. this Is so hard saying good bye so won't I'll just say see you later

“ Dear Terrence,
As I sit here in the early hours of another morning blessed to have been awakened by our GOD, I ask myself "why." I know in my head I should not, as we were taught to never question the actions of the LORD, but my heart will not stop asking that one question along with the many more going thru my head. I am hurt and devastated by the fact that you are not here. I am angered by the senseless and selfishness actions of another that took you away from your young life and our family. My grief is unbounded. I will never see you grow into the man I knew you would become. I will never see the potential that the good LORD had waiting for you. You were a bright light in our family and friends' lives that shined near, far, and bright. You always had a hearty joke, a wonderful smile and an utmost respect for others. You did your best while here in this lifetime and you gave it your all. Now, rest my beloved nephew, rest and know that you will always be remembered, cherished and loved by all that had the honor of knowing your great presence.

All my broken heart,
Auntie Kim

“ Money Making Tay. Terrence was my big brother/ best-friend. I met Tay in 9th grade and it was up from there. Blood couldn't make us closer! Tay was always one call away and he was always there when I needed him. Tay was always one call away to come pick me up when I got into it with my females, to help me make money moves or to just be a listening ear. He was so selfless and compassionate! He always made sure his circle was good. I know everybody that knows him remember his favorite line “you good?”. He used to call and he never said “hello” he always started the convo off like “you good?”. That's actually our last convo together, he was checking on me.

We all change and grow independently of course. But the core parts of our character - kindness, humor, loyalty - seem deeper than flesh alone. And all of that explains him. Those qualities don't vanish when the body fades. They live on through the love that refuses to let someone be forgotten. Death has robbed us of our best but has not extinguished the light. The fire will continue burning forever. Terrence will live through all of us! We will NEVER let your legacy die. Long Live Terrance The Mayor 💜 🖤 I love you bro 💪

“ Terrence was all about family. He would give you the shirt on his back. If he didn't have it, he would make a way for you to have it. He has always been a REAL SOLID cool down to earth person! We are going to miss your smile and laughter. Even tho my birthday in April and his in May, we are the same zodiac sign and he will always be my Taurus ♉ Twin! We are going to miss and love you brother ❤️ We can't question God on why things happen the way they do but God needed you more, #GoneButNeverForgotten

“ Terrence has always been another big brother to me. He's always been respectful around me and always made me feel welcomed. He showed me in many ways with his family how a real man is supposed to treat his family . Growing up with Kaykay I've seen Terrence grow over the years and must I say he was elevating more and more and sticking to his motto family first . Anytime I seen him his family was never too far away. I'm going to miss seeing his face , hearing his laugh , and even the wise words he could give a person. I remember he would always give me and kaykay advice as little girls and in my head I would think im never going to need this advice . Boy was I wrong ! He has helped /touched many lives ! He will never be forgotten. We will never let his name die. His legacy will live on forever! Thank you for always being that big brother I didn't know I needed . Get You Rest Now !

“ To know you was to love you! A REAL STAND UP GUY! Willing to give anyone the shirt off his back; LITERALLY! as everyone knows you was Mr make it happen! if you could you would w/o hesitation! especially for the ones you loved. My bestfriend was a strong man who stood for what he believed in and what he felt was right. Even as a jit he was always strong minded My bestfriend taught me soo much when he came back into my life he brought soo much energy, and positivity. he just always knew the right things to say. He had a different type of heart he was a rare breed 1 OF 1 I haven't met anyone like him. He showed me your past doesn't define your future! And stood on it! It's all about the choices you make. He was a great listener and always gave the best advice He was a perfect role model, a great father, a damn good son, the best big brother, and one of the greatest friends I have ever had. When I needed someone he was there in a jiffy to pick me up, when I needed a shoulder to cry on he was there, when I needed to vent he was there and vice versa... wasn't nothing we couldn't talk about. I remember I use to check your location if I seen you in the city I would call you would say "I'm already on my way." Or let me be at work you popping up on me. No matter the distance or the circumstances I know you'll always be with us. This is just a hard pill to swallow bestfriend and you know I hate pills. But I'm gonna keep it together because as they say you're in a better place lol I can picture you and god now up there chopping it up and politicking looking down on us. Pls continue to send your love, positivity, and energy to us in spiritual ways cause lord knows we need it.

I'm praying for the family. And for their strength at a time like this.

I'm truly blessed to have known you for 10+ years, you touched soo many hearts including mine! I miss you already!! A TRUE KING gone but never forgotten! I love you bestfriend you messed the whole city up with this one from the east side to the springs to ATL you was known!

“ Terrence was a close friend of mine who I call family because through my years of high school and after he’s taught me things that I still carry as a man today. He’s a great spirit to be around and always was smiling . Crack jokes to the point you would never really see a dull moment from him. We would give each other words of wisdom and how we were working towards the future.. we clicked instantly because we were all about our family and loved ones . He didn’t play when it comes down to these people and he had standards and morals on his way of living as I had for mine. We accepted each other as is and he gave advice to everyone around him.i truly respect and got love for T for being a genuine friend/family member because he never treated anyone less than..and gave respect upon receiving it. I truly want to send my prayers and condolences to him and his family and to all of us coming together to truly witness a angel on this earth that have us all so much love,happiness and faith. Rest in Heaven King I love you

“ Terrence was always there when i needed him, literally. He strived to be the best father he could be 10 toes down! He always put Zuri first and made sure to show up for her and show his love for her. He was a great dad and role model and the MOST genuine no matter the situation or experience! His name hold weight for sure it's nothing but GREAT things to say about him, his character, his whole being was selfless. I'll always appreciate and love how he loved and supported Zuri and everyone else around him. He deserved better but his name WILL live on!
