

Terry Wayne Lung

February 24, 2016

Terry W. Lung, age 77, passed away at his home Wednesday, February 24, surrounded by family and friends. Mr. Lung was born to Forest and Loa Lung in Fort Wayne, Indiana, and the family later moved to Deland, Florida, where he graduated with a bachelors degree from Stetson University. At Stetson, he met and married Martha Boyer, originally from New Buffalo, Pennsylvania. After graduation, Terry taught at a private school in central Florida. He was also very interested in black-and-white photography and created many unique and moving works of art. The couple later moved to Atlanta where Terry had several gallery shows, one of which awarded his work "Best in Show." He is survived by his wife of 53 years; one child, Cassaundra (Kenneth) Stewart; and two grandchildren, Crystal and Andrew Snow.

“ I was unaware of Terry's passing and am saddened to learn of it. I attended Stetson University with Terry and was a subject of some of his work. I still display two photographs he took and am reminded of how absolutely talented he was. My belated condolences to his family.

“ May "the God of all comfort" continue to strengthen you all now and in the days ahead. He has made a provision to resurrect dead ones..."He sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." ~1 John 4:9. Jesus promises: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." ~John 11:25

“ My condolences in the loss of your dear loved one. When our loved ones fall asleep in death, the pain of grief seems unbearable. Our loving God Jehovah understands how we feel and he comforts us by means of his word the Bible. Hosea 13:14 says: From the power of the grave I will redeem them. From death I will recover them. The scripture at Psalm 147:3 is also very comforting; He (God) heals the brokenhearted; He binds up their wounds. May these scriptures comfort you at this time of bereavement.
