“ My dear cuz. How you are missed. We had just texted a month ago. This is kind of crazy. I was trying to think of something to write and thought of this.....

*As our Tears become mixed
With the Emotions we are feeling
And the Rain has masked our tears
We try to Remember what is lost only
To know Your spirit and love is still here*

I love and miss you cuz. Deborah Parham Bails

“ Our sincere condolences to Tony and the entire Mann family. Terry was such a beautiful person inside and outside, it was truly a pleasure working along side of her for a couple of years organizing the women's day program, we truly had a wonderful time. She will truly be missed but I know she is now resting in the arms of God.

You will forever be in our thoughts, peace, blessings and prayer to the Family.

“ I remember feeling out of my comfort zone at an event in GA, and Terry came over and introduced herself. A conversation took place between us like we had known each other for years. Just like she touch my heart ❤️ I know that she touched the heart of many others. I'm so thankful that I had the privilege of sharing Terry. So family on this day please accept the comfort of those around you, and draw I. The comfort, strength, and peace of mind the God will give you. In know that Terry believed this to be true. My thoughts and prayers be with you on this day.
